"Only one officer and ten men have been sent from Regina to the border, and the rest of the force will be sent to the border in the morning. The strike is quite unbroken. No interference is contemplated."

DUMA DISSOLUTION.

Rumor Revived by Action of Russia's War Minister.

Associated Press Despatch.
St. Petersburg, May 1.—A note published in the semi-official "Rossa" today dealing with the dissolution of the Duma's statement in the Lower House of Parliament yesterday that the Duma had been notified of the fact that the abolition of drum-head courts martial was to be discussed, declares that the minister was entirely unaware that the parliament committee proposed not only the abolition of drum-head courts martial, but that the cases of those condemned to penal servitude by such courts should be transferred to the ordinary court. This, the note concluded, is tantamount to the annulment of the Duma's statement, and claims for the Duma powers which it does not possess. This claim derided the minister of justice of the possibility of making the reply which he intended to make to the Duma's announcement, has again been refuted.

MUCH BUSINESS AT THE COUNCIL

The Strathcona Aldermen Deal With Many Questions at Last Night's Meeting.

The regular weekly meeting of Strathcona City Council, postponed from Tuesday evening, was held last night with all the members, excepting Alderman Crawford, present. There was also a big attendance of spectators.

After routine business consisting of the passing of accounts and the reading of minutes a large number of communications were submitted.

The Communications.

J. W. Norton and B. F. Jacobson wrote asking that Whyte avenue be extended southward through other subdivisions to University Park.

W. J. Jackson, of the East Clover Farm Institute, asked that the road from the Gallagher-Hill Packing Factory to the bridge be placed in order.

W. J. Jackson and others asked with reference to a road to the south portion of the Hubert estate.

Petitions for grade and sidewalks were read from J. D. Bower and others asking for the grading of the north end of Rupert to the south end of Block 42, and from McElroy and others asking for a six foot sidewalk on the south side of Royal along Block 107.

The above letters were filed.

George H. Hargrave, minister of agriculture, wrote with reference to the cleaning of the old dump ground to the south of the city. Dr. Hargrave, minister of health, informed, he said, was at present out of town, but the matter would be taken up on his return.

The Cement Construction Co., Ltd., wrote asking an opportunity for quoting prices on sidewalks and other city concrete work.

E. A. Fowler, Edmonton, offered his services as city gardener for seeding and planting trees on the boulevards.

W. Brent, Toronto, a real estate broker, wrote with reference to the $20,000 debentures now being offered for sale. He recommended that the city should buy them in better financial condition.

The Northern Electric Fire Alarm Company wrote with reference to the fire alarm system recently purchased from them, enclosing contract, and the J. C. Case Manufacturing Company, stating that the new steam engine had been shipped.

G. J. Kinnaird wrote enclosing the telephone agreement, and asking the right of way from the river to the street opposite Second street, Edmonton.

The Forest City Paving Construction Company offered to submit tenders on street paving; the Canadian Westinghouse again wrote that they were drawing on the city for $418.34; the Financial Post wrote with reference to advertisements and subscriptions. These communications were filed.

Bank Wants Security.

The manager of the Imperial Bank pointed out that the security had not been deposited in the form of debentures for the following amounts: Waterworks $20,000, local improvements $20,000, sidewalks $7,000. This question was referred to the finance committee.

Reports of Committees.

The Fire and Light Committee reported the purchase of two horses for the brigade at a cost of $600.

The Hospital Committee reported that the tent for the hospital had been erected and was now being occupied by the nurses.

The Public Works Committee reported that the Martin estate subdivision had been opened up without cost to the city.

The solicitor was instructed to write J. J. Gahner with reference to buildings removed from property sold by him to the city for the C.P.R., and request that the cost of the buildings be returned to the city.

The auditor's report for last year was promised for next regular meeting.

The proposed soap factory site which the owners are now apparently unwilling to sell, was discussed further, and the Mayor again instructed to write the agent selling out the circumstances.

The extension of water and sewer connection to the laundry at city hospital was approved.

By-laws in amendment of the health by-law, imposing the penalties, making regulations for the plans of subdivisions of land; and to appoint a sanitary inspector and police constable were given their third reading and adopted.

The Premier Heard.

Premier Rutherford asked that the assurance be given of water and sewer extension to the proposed university and also asked that a road passing through his property at the Vogel Hill be surveyed. A motion was passed promising the former, and the latter request was referred to a committee, with power to act.

Assessment Committee.

Aldermen Hubert, Rankin, the secretary-treasurer and the mayor were appointed an assessment committee.

After some other minor business, the meeting adjourned.

ROYAL HOTEL REQUEST REFUSED.

The Royal hotel proprietors, Messrs. Cairns & McNeil, at last night's council meeting, asked permission to erect a wooden addition at the rear of the hotel. The hotel is within the scope of the fire limit by-law and for this reason it was necessary to ask the assessment. Capt. Cairns spoke eloquently before the board, but the aldermen were obstinate and refused his request.

TO ADVERTISE FOR SECY-TTEAS.

Report of Finance Committee With Reference to That Office Submitted Last Night.

There was subdued excitement among the large number of council members who watched the proceedings of the Strathcona city council last night when the report of the finance committee with reference to the secretary-treasurer's office was called for. This was the main point of interest to those present at the meeting, and a stormy time was expected in view of statements made at the meeting of a week before.

On a number of previous occasions the secretary had asked for assistance and last night provoked some acrimonious discussion. Among the statements then made were the secretary-treasurer's allegation that the auditor did not know what he was talking about and that the accountant was neglecting his duties, thus imposing a heavy burden on Mr. Dora.

In view of these allegations the finance committee's report was somewhat interesting. It was accepted without discussion and the chairman announced that the secretary-treasurer should be advised to resign.

The report was as follows:—The finance committee recommended that we should not consent to apply for a larger number of city secretary's department and in view of the fact that the secretary-treasurer cannot do his present duties without assistance, we advise again to the secretary-treasurer and accountants departments and advertising for applications for a capable man to take charge of the work at an annual salary of $2,000 per year, such applicant to pay for any assistance he may require four committee further reports that the auditor emphatically states that Mr. Rowden Smart is keeping his work up to date in a satisfactory manner as far as possible.

J. J. MCKENZIE, Chairman.

THE BANQUET TO THE PREMIER

The banquet in honor of Hon. A. C. Rutherford, premier of Alberta, and Strathcona's representative in the provincial legislature, which is being arranged by the Strathcona board of trade, will be held on Friday evening next at the Strathcona hotel. The function is being brought on at this time on account of the government's intention to leave shortly for England to attend the educational conference of the empire. The banquet has no political significance, but is simply an expression of good will from the people of the city in view of the manner in which he has served their interests in his representative capacity. A fee of $2.00 will be charged and tickets can be procured from Secretary Weir, of the board of trade. The dining hall will be opened at 9 o'clock.

C. P. R. AWARDS CONTRACT.

Supt. Jamieson, of the C. P. R., Calgary, was in the city yesterday and awarded a contract to the Strathcona City Transfer Co. for eight teams to be used in grading work westward from Whyte avenue crossing towards the southern terminus of the high level bridge project.

THE RESCUE OF ENTOMED MINERS

Who were imprisoned for 100 Hours. They are all in the Hospital.

Johnston, Pa., May 1.—Taken from the dark recesses of a coal mine where they had been imprisoned for over 100 hours and snatched almost from the jaws of death the seven men taken from the Berynd White mine, 10 miles S. of Fossil, are lying in the Windberg hospital physically exhausted and oblivious to all about them and recovering their strength in ease. The men were reached about ten o'clock last night, but were not brought out until this morning, the physicians fearing a reaction from the excitement and sudden exposure to the outside air which might have serious effects. Immediately upon being brought out all the men wanted to go to their homes and were taken to the outside air where food was given to them at first, but a stimulant in the form of brandy and water was administered. Soon after arriving at the hospital the men were sound asleep and no communication was allowed with them. Correspondents and newspaper photographers were about the vicinity of the hospital in an attempt to get the men's pictures, but they were turned away and the men are not disturbed except at regular intervals, when the nurses administer hot drops and other nourishment. Immediately afterward the men again drop asleep, apparently exhausted. The hospital physician said this morning that the men would be able to go about in a few days, but they would be too weak to resume their regular duties for a week or more.

1500 FEET OF SEWER IS LAID

Canadian White Co., Making Highway on Contract. $37,500 has Been Paid by City.

The Canadian White Co. is making rapid progress on the sewer contract. Every winter weather retarded operations, but with the warm weather the work is being rushed ahead. The company had to discontinue operations in the last Creek trench about the end of March, the trench being filled with water. The entire force of men was put at work driving a tunnel, about 320 feet in length, under the old fashion hospital site. It is expected this tunnel will be completed in about ten days and by that time the trench will be in shape for the men to go to work again. In the meantime the big trencher brought to the city last summer by Messrs. Taylor and Boucher, has been making very satisfactory progress on 9th street. Some trouble was experienced at first on account of the trencher sinking, the wheels not being of sufficient width to support the great weight in the soft mud. This difficulty was overcome and during the six days of last week a total distance of 100 feet was covered, making a trench slightly over 5 feet in width and averaging about 14 feet in depth. The trencher was put in operation at the corner of Ninth and Churchill running south on Ninth is now crossing the C. N. R. tracks. If conditions will permit will cross to Mackenzie avenue and thence west on Mackenzie to 14th street. The concrete is being put in as rapidly as possible, and the sewer is completed to within 300 feet of the trencher. A force of nearly 100 men are employed by the company at present, and more will be added as the work progresses. A total of 1700 lineal feet of trench had been excavated, and 1,250 feet of sewer completed up to the end of April. On the whole contract the sum of $27,500 has been paid by the city to date.

CONTRACT LET FOR 600 TONS

Of Stone for Strathcona High School Let to Western Timber and Mines Ltd.

The Western Timber and Mines, Ltd. have secured a contract to supply the new collegiate institute at Strathcona with 600 tons of Alberta blue stone from their quarries forty miles up the Saskatchewan. The company have a very superior quality of building stone. Stones are being built at Fraser's camp, and as soon as navigation opens will be used to convey the output down the river. The quarries are in charge of Frank Scott the well known expert stone man of this city. The inspectors of the company have located some very valuable coal lands in the Mackwood district about 125 miles west of Edmonton and between the survey of the G. T. P. and the C. N. R. The coal is known as semi-anthracite, and the G. T. P. has 75 per cent. fixed carbon. They have several lignite and steam coal propositions, the steam coal being quite similar to the Fernie product. The timber prospects are out last season and several very fine timber lands were located, all between the survey of the C. N. R. and G. T. P. Applications have been forwarded to Ottawa, and they will be surveyed as soon as possible. The company has also secured 2,200 acres of coal lands adjoining the town of Vegreville, and some stone prospects near the same place will also be developed.

THE MEN OF THE PEOPLE.

The visit paid to the town of Vegreville by the Minister of Public Works and the Minister of Agriculture, Hon. W. H. Cushing, M.P.P., afforded the citizens of that enterprising town an opportunity to become better acquainted with two members of the Alberta government, and also gave the ministers a chance to secure information about the progress of that section of the province, which is bound to be of value to them in the discharge of their public duties. It is important that the men who have charge of the administration of the affairs of a growing province like this should keep in close touch with the people, and the constantly changing conditions in the country. People like to meet the public men to whom they entrust their provincial business. They like to hear them discuss the business of the country and to personally meet the heads of the departments at Edmonton. There can be little complaint made on this score against these two ministers especially.

In the discharge of his duties as Minister of Agriculture, Hon. W. T. Finlay has not spared himself in his efforts to keep in close touch with agricultural men in all parts of the province of Alberta. Last year he visited almost every agricultural exhibition of importance in the entire province, where he met the leading farmers of the district, examined their crops, and thus gained a knowledge of the work required to be performed by his department that could be secured in no other way. Every town visited by the Minister of Agriculture will welcome upon a return visit, his genial manner, his readiness to receive suggestions and his devotion to the public duties of his position, has not only won him many friends, but has convinced the public of his competency as Minister of Agriculture. On his recent visit to Vegreville he took up the question of the operation of the railway that is standing idle in the town, and it is confidently expected that the result will be its operation by the Department of Agriculture, which, if accomplished, would be a great advantage to the farmers in the vicinity. Thus it is by keeping in constant touch with the people and the vital interests of the province that the Minister of Public Works, Hon. W. H. Cushing has also spent a good deal of time travelling about the province, and he has personally visited almost every important public work in progress under the direction of his department. This personal knowledge has been of great value to him, and at the same time he has met the people in many parts of Alberta and become better acquainted with them and their local conditions, with which he has to deal.

Much of his work has been done at no small sacrifice of comfort and time, but the results have repaid him amply, because as the people come to know Alberta's Minister of Public Works, they learn to esteem and regard him as one of the most capable and conscientious men in public life today. His direct, straightforward, business-like methods of discharging his somewhat difficult duties have been favorably commented upon by both political friends and political opponents.

During his visit to Vegreville, Mr. Cushing was waited upon by the town council and board of trade of that town in respect to the establishment of a telephone exchange in the town and branch lines. The whole matter was discussed before the Minister, and the desires of the town represented to him. The requests were reasonable, and the Minister at once assured the delegation that their views would be met. It was the policy of the government to construct telephone lines where the people require them, and it was also their desire to obtain the opinions of the people as to where these lines should be run. The result of the interview is that the wishes of the citizens of Vegreville will be carried out in a manner that will be satisfactory to that town and to the province.

These tangible results of the visit of these two ministers, and to show the great advantages of having public men ready and willing to take every opportunity of meeting the people and hearing their views and requirements. Opportunities of this kind should frequently be given to our provincial cabinet ministers to learn more of the province, and its rapidly increasing population, the result of which would be to populate our public men and secure as directly as possible the embodiment of the wishes of the people in the laws of Alberta and the administration of them.

THE C. N. R. "BREAKDOWN."

The Canadian Northern Railway Company have been for some time and are at present receiving a very liberal measure of criticism from newspapers and semi-public bodies in particular on account of the analysis which overtook their western service during the past winter. That the service or lack of service is open to criticism needs no proof but it is so clear that the criticism has not been tempered by an equally ready knowledge of the causes which have led to the breakdown, and while it is the undoubted privilege of the press and the public to condemn an inefficient service it certainly is not in the interest of the country served by the C.N.R. or of the western country generally that this condemnation should be carried to a point of further embarrassing and crippling the road and neither is it in the interest of the public that the condemnation should be continued, as has been too often the case, to the younger of our western roads while the older and richer competitor to whom much more was given and from whom much more should be expected, is excused by silence for the execrable treatment it has meted out to the public for a generation—treatment which under similar circumstances has equaled if not surpassed during the past winter all other winters the worst the Canadian Northern has done.

In the first place it should be remembered that a railway is preferable to no railway—even if it is poorly operated and two railways are correspondingly better than one, even if the second does suffer an occasional breakdown in seasons of unusual severity when taking under the strain of reaching out to meet the requirements and demands of the country. As compared to the wagon and the trail a railway which gets a train through one month is an immeasurable improvement, and for the greater part of the country traversed by the Canadian Northern Railway—Winnipeg to Edmonton—line it was the only mode of reaching the railway and the wagon trail. The newspapers which now so loudly condemn the breakdown of the Canadian Northern service have met with them been born since the Canadian northern was built and would not have been born if it had not been built. The boards of directors and the resolutions in condemnation of the road have in a great many cases been formed since the road was built and that for the excellent reason that the towns did not reach the dignity and could not reach the dignity of trading towns until the road was constructed. And from the towns which had railway communication, the C.N.R. was built some measure of leniency might also be expected for the faulty operation of a new road. Of these towns those west of Winnipeg at least were invariably established in wealth by the advent of the Canadian Northern. Real estate which previously could not be sold at all readily found a ready market accordingly. Immigrant business flourished. Settlement spread and business increased. And in the lowering of freight and passenger rates throughout the whole western country the able received a very tangible and substantial benefit—a benefit which should surely not be forgotten when Mr. Road fails to understand the circumstances. Certainly of all such places Edmonton should be the last to forget that the first train that entered the town was over the Canadian Northern line and that the town of five years ago has become the city of today some measure of credit is due the road which freed it from the grip of railway discrimination and railway monopoly.

Nor should it be forgotten that if the Canadian Northern service has broken down it has done so because the company displayed too great an enterprise rather than too little—that in the anxiety to extend lines to the districts which were demanding railway competition the company in the language of the street "let off more than it could chew," and the completion of the Battledore-Edmonton line in a single season was a veritable feat in itself from a railway point of view. The line was constructed without one dollar of subsidy or one acre of land grant, and to undertake to construct and equip the line and put it into operation in a single season would have been a formidable proposition even for the wealthiest of railway corporations in the world. When locomotive wheels and car wheels are running night and day in the hopeless task of overhauling the demand for equipment. When on top of this the Canadian Northern took over the Prince Albert branch heavily adding another two hundred and sixty miles to its lines the problem of operation was again complicated. Yet it has been by doing such things that the company has been able to extend its system from the Great Lakes to Edmonton and to introduce railway competition into three provinces. It might have been better railway management if the company had built and equipped only half the length of line but in devoting their energies to the extension rather than the equipment of their system they certainly were meeting the public demand and for that reason are entitled to a certain amount of public consideration.

And it must be remembered that there are others—others too of greater wealth and longer experience of whom more was given and from whom much better should be expected, from whom little may now be required, but from whom better has not been received under similar circumstances. The lamentable failure of the Canadian Northern to meet the requirements of the country during the present season has been merely an accentuated and aggravated instance of the service rendered by the C. P. R. under similar conditions. That that company after twenty years' experience in the operation of a transcontinental road, with the equipment of all kinds that has been accumulated during that time, with twenty years' experience on its road-bed, with the money markets of Europe and America clamoring for its stock, and back of all with such subsidies and land grants enough to build the road—that such a company would be able to operate more efficiently than its rival could be expected. It would be a matter of management if it did not and yet during the past winter the branches from the Calgary and Edmonton eastward have been tied up for two weeks at a time without a train over the line. It is not an unknown thing for the Calgary and Edmonton line only two hundred miles in length to be tied up for a week in years gone by. And Edmonton merchants who in days not so long distant have waited two months for consignments of freight from Montreal and a month for shipments from Winnipeg, and in this the dead of winter when the road-bed was as good and the equipment as lightly burdened as at any season of the year—will find nothing to marvel at when a road which has been built only a year and a half is temporarily tied-up by a winter of almost unprecedented severity. If the C.P.R. with its miles, its wealth and its equipment has not coal enough on hand to operate its western system for a month when the mines are shut down and winter is at its fiercest, how before the combined forces of severe weather and over-worked equipment?

There is another phase of the question which should be kept in mind. It is not in the public interest that the Canadian Northern Railway should be further hampered and crippled and yet this may well be the outcome of inconsiderate and wholesale measure of its service. The company has been notoriously short of funds in comparison to its rivals and is at present endeavoring to raise money in England for the better equipment of the road. Last week Parliament empowered the issue of $500,000 bonds for the express purpose and under the explicit condition that the money be spent in rolling stock and road betterment. The company announces that they have under contract for delivery during the present year locomotives and cars aggregating a cost of $2,000,000 and are already placing orders for additional quantities. It is reasonable to suppose therefore that they are making faithful efforts to bring the road up to the proper standard. Their doing so depends, of course, on the willingness or unwillingness of the British money owners to supply the funds and nothing is more surely calculated to defeat their purpose than to create if only the slightest impression in the minds of English investors the notion that the road is regarded in Canada as a hopelessly mismanaged enterprise and doomed to failure. Yet such action may well be created if only the unfavorable side of the enterprise is revealed and emphasized. The time is not so far past when the C. P. R. was regarded by every newspaper in the western Canada as a road that the C.N.R. bonds offered in London had failed to find purchasers and had been thrown back on the agents' hands. There every reason to suppose the C. P. R. would be willing to similarly report a failure in the present instance, and no reason to suppose they are not prepared to take a hand in creating the situation they would be glad to report. While newspapers semi-public bodies of unquestioned sincerity have criticised the lamentable tie-up of the Canadian Northern, the discerning may distinguish also amid the din the favorable mention of the C.P.R. organ.

BISHOP REEVES' WORK IN THE NORTHLAND

The Anglican Bishop of the MacKenzie River District tells of his work---He Came to the West 38 Years Ago.

Special to the Bulletin.

The Right Reverend Bishop Reeves yesterday by stage for Athabasca Landing, having spent the previous night only in Edmonton.

His Lordship is returning home after an extended trip through Eastern Canada.

He attended the semi-annual meeting of the board of management of the Missionary Society of the Church of England in Canada, which was held in the city of Hamilton, Ont., on April 11th. On the following Sunday, April 14th, he ordained two men for the diocese of MacKenzie river, and three others two for Rupert's Land and one for Nova Scotia. The names of the first two are: A. J. Vale and H. L. Day; those for the diocese of Rupert's Land are: Messrs. Purdie and Griggs; and the one for the diocese of Nova Scotia is Mr. Beverley.

A Northwest Veteran. Bishop Reeves is a veteran in the church service in this country, having come here 38 years ago, when Winnipeg was a very small place, and there was scarcely any settlement beyond. Nearly all this time he has spent in the north and most of it within the two dioceses over which he has charge, and the greater part in MacKenzie River diocese at Fort Simpson. In the diocese of Athabasca he had his home at Fort Chipewyan on Athabasca Lake. Since taking the oversight of the two dioceses, three years ago, he has resided at Athabasca Landing, which is just on the southern border of both, and is the most convenient point for communication, both with all the interior missions, and with the world without, having a post office and a telegraph station.

Great Future for the Landing. Athabasca Landing, Bishop Reeves regards as likely to become an important place, being the gateway to the whole of the Peace River, MacKenzie and Athabasca districts, through which all traffic must pass. Railway communication will be established, and it is expected, to be established in the near future; but he feels, in view of the declaration that the Canadian Northern company will not do any more extension work this year, that the delay will be longer than has been hoped.

To reach Athabasca Landing from Edmonton a journey of 100 miles by stage must be taken; a stage runs only once a week, and a winter stage runs only once a month.

His Lordship is returning home after an extended trip through Eastern Canada.

brances about 600,000 square miles, and constitutes one-seventh or one-eighth of the whole Dominion. Within the last twelve months he has travelled 300 miles by York boat, 100 miles in a freight wagon, 300 miles in the Peace River steamer, was towed 300 miles more down the Peace River by steam tug to Chipewyan, helped to paddle his own canoe 40 miles, travelled about 2,500 miles by steamer on the MacKenzie river, 300 miles in the Athabasca steamer, and over 250 miles in a row, rode his own horses over 100 miles, and drove them over 600 miles. To this may be added extensive railway travelling, including two trips East and return within the twelve months of some 8,000 or 9,000 miles.

Population of MacKenzie District. The population of the MacKenzie river diocese is composed almost entirely of Indians and Eskimos to a number of 5,000 and a few fur traders and missionaries. His Lordship visits throughout his diocese in a-ternate years, not being able to cover the whole field in the year. In the MacKenzie river diocese he has confirmed about 20 young people, Indians; has baptised 20 young people, Indians; has administered the Lord's supper to nearly 100 Eskimos. He reaches the Eskimos by means of a few fur traders, though interpreters. As almost every Indian tribe has a different dialect, much of the work has to be done among them also through interpreters, and it is often difficult to secure competent and suitable interpreters. The bishop preaches and conducts services himself in the Slave language.

The Bishop's Assistants. In the MacKenzie river diocese his Lordship has six white and one native clergyman, including two just ordained. These occupy all the posts at present established, but his Lordship is anxious to open others as the need and money were available. In the Athabasca diocese there are ten clergymen, besides school teachers and lay helpers. The population includes 6,000 natives and 10,000 whites, the latter increasing in number, and likely to continue growing as the Peace River country is opened up. The bishop has heard from one of his missionaries, and from a number of his lay helpers, that the work is progressing well, and that the people are becoming more civilized.

visit the missions, and will be absent most of the summer. He expects to meet his clergyman and other helpers at Lesser Slave Lake, where the diocesan synod meeting is to be held in July.

"FIGHTING MAC" NOT A SUICIDE

Traveller Amazes England by Denying That Sir Hector Macdonald is Dead.

(Associated Press Dispatch.)

London, May 1.—A singular story that has both astonished and amused England and Scotland was published recently in the Manchester Sunday Chronicle. It relates to the late renowned soldier, Major General Sir Hector Macdonald.

The general, it will be remembered, was reported to have committed suicide in an obscure Paris hotel on March 25, 1903, while en route from Ceylon, where he had been in command of the 1st division of the 1st Indian Infantry, to Afghanistan, in the Boer war, in which he commanded the Highland Brigade, and he also figured conspicuously in the fighting against Arabi Pasha in Egypt and the Mahdi in the Sudan.

Claims He Still Lives.
The publication in the Manchester paper, it is to be noted, that "Fighting Mac," as Sir Hector was known in military and Scottish circles, is still very much alive and is now organizing a powerful army for China.

The most circumstantial story bearing on Sir Hector's alleged survival emanates from Johannesburg from a man who recently arrived there from the Far East. He asserts that he saw "Fighting Mac" at Nanking, China, last year, putting his astonishing decision in the following form:

"I knew Hector Macdonald very well, both in Egypt and South Africa. I was in Nanking in December last. I saw a battalion of Chinese soldiers living idly in European style on a space in the center of the city and, feeling curious, I walked up to where three officers were standing. One of them was Sir Hector Macdonald. He was clean-shaven, but otherwise he had altered very little since the occasion of my last meeting him in Pretoria.

"I was almost breathless with astonishment. I was about to speak to him when his eyes met mine. He turned rapidly around to one of the other officers and said something quickly in Chinese.

Ordered to Leave at Once.
"The officer, almost springing at me, shouted: 'Leave this ground at once, or we will put you where your friends won't find you in a hurry.' I left Nanking that day for Shanghai, and I found that the fact that Sir Hector Macdonald was in that country was believed by a great many 'blackhead' people."

As strengthening the story, it is pointed out that no inquest was held on the body alleged to be that of Sir Hector Macdonald; but in official and other quarters little attention has been paid to the matter. The paper's Johannesburg informant, of officials believe, was mistaken in his man.

The New President of "Varsity."
The new president of Toronto University, who received the announcement of his appointment while on his new post in a chorus of general approval from the press and the people.

He is said to be a man of broad mind, of rare scholarship and of great dignity of manner. Of his earlier life, an Eastern paper says: "Dr. Falconer was born in Prince Edward Island, 40 years ago. He is a son of the Rev. Alexander Falconer, D. D., of Pictou, N. S., who a year ago was Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada. In early life he spent several years in Trinidad, West Indies, where he attended Queen's Royal College."

He studied later at Edinburgh and the universities and spent the summer seasons in German university life. He is the officer in charge of the First Hill College which has new appointments.

It is pleasing matter for thought that Canada did not thus go abroad in search of its president of one of its universities. More than 30 names, including Canadian, American and British scholars and educationalists, were considered by the committee in search of a president. Only one other name rivalled Dr. Falconer's in its formidable degree and that was Dr. Michael Sadler of Manchester, England.

The final choice rested with the Canadian.

Sketch of a Canadian Family.

In a recent number of "Canada" an interesting historical sketch is given of the de Lotbiniere family, which Edmonton has in the Franco-Roches de Lotbiniere Harwood, a couple of representatives. The sketch says that the house of Chartier de Lotbiniere, which is one of the most distinguished of Canadian families and closely allied to numerous French families of nobility, and for Canadian history, one Louis Chartier de Lotbiniere, General des Armées, was Philippe Chartier, Receiver-General des Comptes in 1574.

One of his sons became Bishop of Paris; another one—Alain—was more famous still. He was Secretary of State to Louis XI, who granted him French nobility. His extraordinary eloquence so impressed Margaret of Scotland, the queen of Louis XI, that he received public tokens of her esteem.

One of his sons—Clement—married a wealthy heiress of Brittany, and to him is traced the name of Lotbiniere in the province of Maine. His son, from another union, was in Dyonnais, called Biliard, added to the first name, a fish called Lot, found in the ponds of the chateau, and thus made it Lotbiniere.

Clement de Lotbiniere died in 1600, aged 101 years. One of his daughters married Joseph de Chateaubaud, an ancestor of the illustrious author of the "Genie du Christianisme." His son, Alain, was the great-grandfather of the founder of Lotbiniere's famous seigniorship of Lotbiniere in Canada was 1602.

Government House Reception.

Government House presented a festive scene on Tuesday night, when another of the pleasant series of this season's receptions was in progress. The Governor and Mrs. Bulver received their guests in the reception room. Mrs. Bulver wearing a very handsome gown of ivory white brocade satin in a chateau style, the upper landing decorated pleasingly throughout the evening. A reception supper was served shortly before midnight.
